

Dr. Felipe F. Dizon
Economist
World Bank
U. S.

Dr. Felipe Dizon is an Economist in the Food and Agriculture Global Practice of the World Bank, South Asia region. His current work focuses on two areas— one on food security and nutrition issues and its links to agriculture, and the other on financial inclusion through the design, delivery, and evaluation of novel financial products for the poor. Prior to joining the World Bank, he managed and designed field-based research projects in Guatemala, Haiti, Burkina Faso, Ethiopia, Kenya, Liberia, Uganda, and Zambia. Dr. Dizon holds a PhD in Agriculture and Resource Economics from the University of California, Davis, an MA from the University of San Francisco, and a BA from De La Salle University- Manila.

Sustainable Food System & Diets
Implication & Relevance for Nutrition Security

Contributed event organizer:

