Prof. Shenggen Fan
Chair Professor, China Agricultural University

Prof. Shenggen Fan is Chair Professor at China Agricultural University (CAU). Prior to joining CAU, Prof. Fan was Director-General of the International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI) from 2009 to 2019. He joined IFPRI in 1995 as a research fellow, conducting extensive research on pro-poor development strategies in Africa, Asia, and the Middle East. Prof. Fan led IFPRI’s program on public investment before becoming the Director of the Institute’s Development Strategy and Governance Division in 2005. He served as a member, Vice Chair and Chair of the World Economic Forum’s Global Agenda Council on Food and Nutrition Security. Prof. Fan was awarded an honorary life member of the International Association of Agricultural Economists (IAAE) in 2018 and became the Fellow of American Applied Economics Association (AAEA) in 2020. In 2014, he received the Hunger Hero Award from the World Food Programme in recognition of his commitment to and leadership in fighting hunger worldwide. Prof. Fan received a Ph.D. in Applied Economics from the University of Minnesota and a bachelor’s and a master’s degree from Nanjing Agricultural University in China.